

Association's Code of Conduct

- Non-partisanship: The Association will not promote any political ideology, party, political candidate, political party or coalition, or their activities.
- Volunteering: The activities within the Association's programs will be conducted predominantly under voluntary by Association's members or by others who join the Association only for specific projects.
- Resolutions: The General Meeting of Shareholders have the power of decision and delegates power responsibilities to the Board.
- Professionalism and professional ethics: members of the Association will promote professionalism and carry out activities according to the Code of Ethics. Code of Conduct lays down specific rules professions exercised in risk management and occupational health and in safety civil insurance;
- Quality: The Association will promote excellence in training, certification and recognition of professional competencies at national, European and International level.
- European and international cooperation: The Association will work with and join European and international organizations in the same line of work, related objectives and which do not contradict their mission.

INNOVATIVE

RESPONSABILITY

MOTIVATION

OPEN- MINDED

HIGH-LEVEL SPECIALISTS

SUPPORT FOR THE

CAREERS DEVELOPMENT

CONTACT :

18 Romain Rolland Street,
Craiova, Dolj county,
ROMANIA

soon :

www.imrssi.ro

INSTITUTE of
RISK MANAGEMENT and OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH & SAFETY

"IMRSS" Mission is the growth in risk management capability, occupational health and safety, and civil, by stimulating cooperation between experts, institutions, scientific communities, European and International cross-borders professional associations.

ASSOCIATION OBJECTIVES:

- ❖ Representing and supporting the professional and the public interests of the association members, at European and international level.
- ❖ Representing and supporting experts in risk management, occupational health and safety, environmental protection and ensuring the participation or their direct or indirect collaboration in the development and adoption of normative acts on risk management and insurance and occupational health and safety.
- ❖ To stimulate, promote and support professionalism and expertise in risk management and occupational health and safety, and civil domestic and developing a code of ethics for occupational field;
- ❖ Promoting and supporting respect for human dignity, moral and ethical and universal human rights, elimination of all forms of cultural, ethnic, linguistic, religious, racial or sexual discrimination;
- ❖ Creating a code of ethics for all members of the organization.
- ❖ Adoption of a unique and equitable system of certification and professional recognition as national and international specialization for professional skills in occupational health and safety and civil at national, European and international level.
- ❖ Initiation, collaboration and development of national and international projects with the Romanian state authorities and institutions and other international governmental and non-governmental organizations;
- ❖ Informing, developing and making stakeholders, from different government and non-governmental organizations and associations in all public areas and work, aware of the need for an integrated risk management, occupational health and safety insurance and civil national, European and international.

- ❖ Promoting and liaising between governmental, non-governmental organizations at national, European and international programs and projects implementation
- ❖ Stimulating, supporting the involvement of institutions, scientific communities, European and international cross-borders professional associations, design and implementation of strategies, methodologies and procedures of good practice, information and change national and European legislation;
- ❖ To promote and support excellence in the training of individuals, both in the public, civil and private sector, the harmonization of professional standards and training on specialized national occupational health and safety professional with European and international standards;
- ❖ IMRSS's support and official recognition and its members by Romanian and international institutions and organizations;

